MEDICINAL.

Fatherless.

There's something about the little black dress that touches a man in a very tender spot. He puts the little one on the head, puts some pennies in her hand, swallows hard and then starts out to make his own children fatherless. There is no doubt that many a man is taken from his family by neglect of simple precautions which would preserve his health. Disease generally begins nowadays in "stomach trouble" because the meals are hasty and the food not digested. From that beginning come disorders of the blood, liver, kidneys, heart or nerves. The use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, for diseases of the organs of digestion and nutrition will avert the catastrophe of more serious disease. It strengthens the stomach, purifies the blood, nourishes the nerves, and builds men up in both brain and body.

"I can say to you, one bottle of your 'Golden Medical Discovery' has cured me sound and well, after suffering two long years with stomach disease," writes W. H. Braswell, of McAdenville, Gaston Co., N. C. "My health is worth all the world to me. I will praise you as long as I live."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets should be used with "Discovery" where a laxative is required.

CATARRH Nasal Catarrh.

In all its stages there should be cleanliness. ELY'S CREAM BALM cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly. CREAM BALM is placed into the nostrils and spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. It is of immediate use and cures. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large size, 50c at drugists or by mail. Trial size, 10 cents by mail. ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren Street, New York.

FOR OVER FIFTY YEARS.

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhea. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

"I am indebted to One Minute Cough Cure for my present good health and my life. I was treated in vain by doctors for lung trouble following a grippe. I took One Minute Cough Cure and recovered my health." Mr. E. H. Wise, Madison, Ga. Sold by E. S. Lead, 56 Warren St., New York.

A POSSIBLE CLUE.

Capt. Titus, of the New York detective bureau, has been having interviews for several weeks with a woman who thinks she knows who killed May Ferguson, and who gives the name of the man, and says he was a burglar. Affidavits by this woman have been forwarded to Chief of Police Nicholson, of Pittsfield, and District Attorney Hammond, and were expected to reach those officials yesterday evening. The facts are as follows: Several weeks ago Central Office Detective Mullen learned that a young woman had told another woman with whom she was living in New York that she thought she knew who murdered May Ferguson. Mullen persuaded the woman to go to police headquarters and tell the whole story to Capt. Titus. The woman said she had lived for three or four years with a man who came originally from Springfield, Mass. She connected this man with the Ferguson murder, she said, because on August 19, 1900, the day before the murder, he had told her that he and a "pal" of his, whom she had also met, were going to "make a touch out yonder," pointing to the town west.

The night after the murder, at about 3 o'clock, she met him in a quiet street in Springfield and he told her, she said, that in going through the house he had planned to rob he had found a revolver; that there had been an alarm and he had used the revolver. The next morning, she said, she heard of the Ferguson case and she had no doubt that it was Robert Ferguson's revolver the man had found and that it was he who had shot May Ferguson. She said she did not see the man again or his "pal" in Springfield. At Captain Titus's suggestion she has written to the man at every address she could think of as likely to reach him, and various other expedients to get hold of him have been tried, but the man has not been found. All the woman's statements regarding her visit to Springfield and the route from Pittsfield to Springfield have been corroborated.

THE RECENT HOT WAVE.

The recent hot wave, with its hundreds of deaths and thousands of prostrations, has been more disastrous in its effects than any epidemic that has visited the country. Cholera, yellow fever, smallpox, each have also claimed hundreds of victims, but not within the space of so few days. The direct fatalities have been enormous, but the accurate cannot be judged by these alone; the increase in the number of deaths from other causes must also be attributed to the excessive heat, fatal in its results on a system enfeebled by disease. In the future hundreds of those prostrated who escaped immediate death will succumb to comparatively mild attacks of disease, and thus the mortality will go on for months. In the large cities ambulances and patrol wagons were insufficient to convey the stricken to the hospitals, and these were unable to respond to all the demands made upon them with every bed occupied and extra cots in the corridors, and physicians and nurses overtaxed, sometimes falling beneath the strain. The strenuous life is inevitably conquered by the strenuous thermometer. In such crises nothing can be done save to treat each case individually and instruct the populace how best to accommodate themselves to conditions. In cities the permitted free use of water to cool burning pavements, the occupancy of the parks during the night by those whose sleeping places were akin to ovens, the free distribution of ice, all had effect in keeping the death rate from soaring still higher; but the chief work to be done, the chief lesson learned, is that of prevention—the improvement of housing of the poor, the devising of means to prevent factories, stores and streets from becoming infernos, the modification of work hours, the abating of some of the hurry and rush of our usual temperate zone to the occasional torrid experiences. All this until the day when man will have it in his power to modify atmospheric conditions, to produce cooling showers by explosive force or otherwise, and to lower temperature in large areas by the use of some agent, such as liquid air.

To accommodate those who are partial to the use of stomachics in applying liquids in the usual way for colic and other troubles, the proprietors prepare Ely's Liquid Cream Palm. Price including the spraying tube is 75 cents. Druggists or by mail. The liquid embodies the medicinal properties of the solid preparation. Cream Palm is quickly absorbed by the membrane and does not dry up the secretions but changes them to a natural and healthy character. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

You can never cure dyspepsia by dieting.

What your body needs is plenty of good food properly digested. Then if your stomach will not digest it, Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will. It must digest every class of food and so prepare it that nature can use it in nourishing the body and replacing the wasted tissues, thus giving life, health, strength, ambition, pure blood and good healthy appetite. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

A powerful engine can't be run with a weak boiler; and you can't expect to keep up the wear and strain of an active life with a weak stomach. Our boilers, or rather our stomachs, can't be replaced, and we cannot stop the human machinery while making repairs. But when the stomach is unable to digest enough food to keep the body strong, we can use such a preparation as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat, so that you can eat all the good food you want, without any distress after eating. "After forty years of suffering from indigestion, a few bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cured me."—Amel Bell, Fredonia, Pa.

It can't help but do you good

Prepared by E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. The 81 bottle contains 2 1/2 times the 50c size.

When you need a soothing and healing application for piles, sores and skin diseases, use DeWitt's Witch Hazel SALVE. Beware of counterfeits. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.
